

Pennsylvania Halfway House Programs

Medical Assistance Accepted • Free Transportation • 3 Locations pyramidhealthcare.com • (866) 724-1529

Central Pennsylvania

Pyramid Healthcare's Halfway House Programs provide a trauma-informed, person-centered treatment model for adults in search of meaningful, long-term recovery. Our structured programming encourages clients to make positive life changes by incorporating healthy recovery skills, obtaining employment, engaging in volunteer activities, and pursuing educational opportunities.

Gratitude Halfway House

Males 18+
901 Sixth Avenue • Altoona, PA 16602

- » Co-occurring disorders treatment
- » Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) maintenance & education
- » Life skills programming
- » Job training & employment assistance
- » Recovery-based support groups
- » GED classes
- » Referrals to Case Management & CRS Services
- » 12-week parenting track

Pine Ridge Manor Halfway House

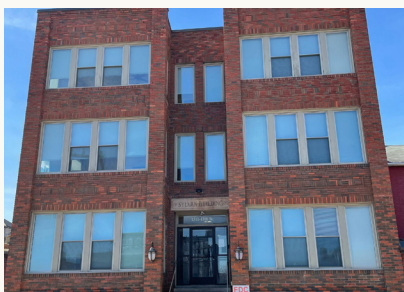

Males 18+
13505 S. Eagle Valley Road • Tyrone, PA 16686

- » Co-occurring disorders treatment
- » Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) maintenance & education
- » Life skills programming
- » Job training & employment assistance
- » Recovery-based support groups
- » GED classes
- » Referrals to Case Management & CRS Services

Tradition Halfway House

Females 18+
Sylvan Building • 1311 13th Street • Altoona, PA 16601

- » Co-occurring disorders treatment
- » Pregnant females accepted
- » Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) maintenance & education
- » Life skills programming
- » Job training & employment assistance
- » Recovery-based support groups
- » GED classes
- » 12-week parenting track